FOR ALL CUSTOMERS

Export Control

All shipments sold by us shall at all times be subject to the export control laws and regulations of the UK and that of the country of origin. You must not send by any means or re-export these items to any of the UK, UN or USA trade embargo countries. We will not make supplies and will not be liable if an export license (if required) is refused. Also applies our sale terms and condition.

In order to comply with UK Export Control we may request the customer to additionally fill Export Control Application Form, which you can download from the admin area of our web site.
